RICH JEWeLRY.
THE subscriber, after a residence of over three years in Wayne county, during which time he has visited all the county towns of the adjoining counties, hopes that he has earned a reputation which will recommend him, in future, to the confidence of all honest confiding men with whom he has transacted business.
He has now returned from the Northern markets, and offers to the public a rich and valuable stock of Jewelry of every description in common use, viz:

Gold and Silver Watches, Gold and Silver Pencils, Gold Pens, Watch Chains, Seals and Keys of superior quality and finish; Breast pins, Finger and Ear Rings, Bracelets, Lockets, Cuff Pins, Gold and Silver Thimbles, a very superior article. Also, Silver Combs, and Ladies Pocket-Books, Gold Buckles and Slides, &c., &c., &c.
In addition to the above, he keeps on hand a very superior article of Pocket Knives, Pen Knives and Razors; also, Silver Butter Knives, and a full assortment of Spectacles, steel silver and gold frames.
He invites particular attention to his Diamond Rings and Breast Pins, an article which is seldom found with inland traders. He has a handsome assortment of Pocket Books, Port Monies, and Cigar Cases.
As the subscriber will continue to visit the Courts of Johnston, Wayne, Greene, Lenoir, and Sampson, where he will always have on hand a full supply of the articles above enumerated, together with all other articles usually kept by the most extensive Jewellers, he appeals to the citizens of these counties for that generous patronage which a Southern citizen may freely claim of the trading public. PLAKES
Patent Fire and Water Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate.
THE above valuable Paint has been examined by Dr. J. R. Chitton of New York. Its chemical analysis is as follows: Silicia, Alumina, and Oxide of Iron, with less of Magnesia, Lime and Carbon, which forms Artificial Slate. It therefore after being mixed with Oil, and spread on harmonizes and combines in its natural state; and the powerful cohesive attraction of the Oxide of Iron blends and attracts the different component parts, so that the longer on, the more powerful the attraction. Consequently the harder the Slate and the closer it will adhere to the substance applied.

The undersigned, Founder and Machinist, has consented to act as Agent for the only actual PORTABLE CIRCULAR SAW MILL in the United States, made by Wm. McKinstry of Washington. These Mills are of Cast Iron, no brick being used in their erection. They can be taken down, removed 5 miles, and put in operation in 16 hours. Power of Engine 20 horse; will cut 15,000 feet Plank Road Lumber per 24 hours. These Mills have taken the premium at the Maryland State Fair over all others, and are considered the best in the world. I would be pleased to receive orders, either for the Engines with or without the Mill. Letter addressed to H. G. Hall will receive prompt attention.
I will put the Mills up any where within 10 miles of Fayetteville, if desirable.

3117 Acres Pine Land
For Sale or Lease.
THE subscriber has 3117 acres of (sound pines) land, equal to any in the State, lying on Linch's Lake, near the mouth of Linch's Creek, in Williamsburg District, with good navigation for Flat Boats, and within five miles of a steamboat landing of the Pee Dee River. Boats pass regularly every week during the winter, spring, and fall, from Charleston, where provisions and other supplies can be obtained. For the Turpentine Business, it is a healthy location, and near a wealthy farming section of the district. Plenty of hoop poles convenient, and some 400 or 500 acres of the above land will produce Cotton finely, if cleared. There is timber sufficient to cut from 15 to 20 crops of boxes. I will sell or lease for 5 years, on liberal terms, the above land.
Any person that wishes, can get the terms, by applying by letter, or personally, at Hookerton, N. C, from about the 20th of December next until the 1st of January, 1852.
SAMUEL BELL.

VALUABLE PROPERTY

For Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the Plantation with the improvements, whereon he now lives, containing about 200 acres; about half of which is cleared. The improvements consist of a good Two Story Building, containing six large rooms, with fire places in every room, and all necessary outbuildings. This tract lies on the East side of Goldsboro', adjoining the Town.
—ALSO—
One other tract, known as the Borden and Hooks Land, situated on the South side of Goldsboro', adjoining the Town, containing about 400 acres, a good portion of which is equal in point of productiveness, to any lands in Wayne county, or, I might almost say, in the State, and would, if rented and well attended, always pay more than the interest on the purchase money. I have also several Town Lots in Goldsboro', which I would sell. I would sell any, or all of said property, and take in payment likely Young Negroes, Bonds, Notes, or would sell on a credit, for any reasonable term.
The flourishing state of Goldsboro' is well known. Among other advantages, it affords rare facilities to parents to educate their children. There is at present, in the vicinity, as good a school—Mr. Robinson's—as the State affords, and a building for a collegiate school will be commenced in a few weeks. These considerations, and the intrinsic value of the property offered for sale, ought to make a residence and farm near Goldsboro' a desirable object, especially to parents.
For other particulars, apply to Everittsville Female Academy.

THIS Institution will be continued under the superintendence of the Rev Mr. SMYTH, assisted by competent Teachers in all the branches requisite for a finished education.
The next session will commence on the 1st of January, 1852.
Two or three boarders, in addition to those already engaged, can be accommodated in the family of the Principal; but board can be procured on very reasonable terms in families of the highest respectability in the village.
For terms, &c., application may be made to JOHN EVERITT, Esq., Treasurer, or Rev; J. JONES SMYTH, Principal.

Religious Notice.
The Rev, J. M. FULTON, Missionary to California, will preach in Smithfield the 17th Dec. and Goldsboro' the 19th Dec., at night. A collection will be taken up in behalf of the mission.

MISCELLANEOUS.

LOVE.—What so unearthly, so beautiful, as the first birth of woman's love? The air of heaven is not purer in its wanderings—its sunshine not more holy in its warmth. Oh! why should it deteriorate in its nature—why should the step which prints, sully also the snow?

NEW INVENTION.—An umbrella with a gutter round the edge, which causes the rain to run off at one point.

The Mayor of Killingly has decided that a small dog sitting on the steps of his master's house, is "running at large."

The dying are flitting clouds, the living stationary ones, but at evening both disappear.

Dean Swift says he never knew a man to thrive who lay abed late in the morning; and Dr. Franklin says: "a man may rise late and trot all day, and never overtake his business."

Mrs. Jarvis says there is no instance of a wise bachelor—they are merely rational. So long as a man is single, she observes, so long is he a nonentity—a mere cypher of humanity—but with another figure added—the figure of a woman, for instance—this cypher becomes a respectable member of the human multiplication table, and proves himself a lover of his country. Amen.

A SENSIBLE REPLY.—Yesterday evening, during the examination of a witness as to the locality of the stairs in a house, the counsel asked him "which way did the stairs run?"—The witness, who by the by is a noted wag, replied "that one way they ran up stairs, but the other way they ran down stairs." The learned counsel winked both eyes, and then took a look at the ceiling.

THE DOCTOR'S WELCOME.—Down East there resides a certain M. D.—One very cold night he was aroused from his slumber by a very loud knocking at his door. After some hesitation he went to the window, and asked, "Who's there?" "Friend," was the answer. "What do you want?" "Want to stay here all night?" "Stay there, then!" was the benevolent reply.

IMPORTANT.—It is important to have an umbrella in a shower, dinner when you are hungry, and a long-boat in a squall; but the most important of all to a nice young gentleman, is a nice young lady to say "Yes" at the right time.

A LOAFER'S SOLILOQUY.

Oh, dear! Oh, dear! What a world this is. This world, as Shakspeare very beautifully remarks, "is all a cattle show, for man's *de*lusion given—and—and woman's too." That's a fact.—Shakspeare's right! This here is a very—a very checkered life.

This world is given to fault-finding, tremenjus. Now, here's my wife—kicked up a row, just because I went to bed with my overcoat, boots, and hat, when she knew that I wanted to get up airly in the mornin', and start off im*me*jitly on 'portant business. She's very p'ticular to inquire what business it is that calls me out so airly—but I won't tell 'er. She's no right to interfere in my business. I don't in'efere'n hers. I don't never ask her where she buys groceries and provisions, and gets trusted for 'em—if she only gets 'em without throwin' away money for 'em.

And then she finds fault wi' me for spendin' so much money for liker. But what am I goin' to dew? Licker's cash; it can't be bort without the dimes. She says it hurts me, and makes my hands peel, says that 'twould take a great deal of new milk to make a man's hands peel bad. What o' that! Hain't the men that sell licker got to live? How can they pay rent if nobody patronizes 'em? That's a question that goes to my heart like an arrer. When I think of the high rents that tavern keepers have to pay, I al'ays go and take su'thing to help 'em along. I've thought a good deal about this lately—and—now I think of it they've riz on what's his name's rent, across the way, and I'll just go over and give him a small lift. Oh, dear! this is a checkered life.

TOBACCO has spoiled and utterly ruined thousands of boys, inducing a dangerous precocity, developing the passions, softening and weakening the bones, and greatly injuring the spinal marrow, the brain, and the whole nervous fluid. A boy who early and freely smokes or otherwise largely uses tobacco, never is known to make a man of much energy of character, and generally lacks physical and muscular as well as mental energy.

WHIG MEETING IN CUMBERLAND.

In accordance with a previous call, a large number of the Whigs of Cumberland assembled in the Town Hall, in Fayetteville, on Tuesday afternoon, the 2d instant.

On motion of Wm. J. Anderson, Esq. Joel Williams, Esq. was called to the Chair, and Thomas J. Robinson appointed Secretary

The Chairman having explained the object of the meeting,

On motion of E. J. Hale, a committee of five, consisting of E. J. Hale, Col. Jno. Winslow, William H. Haigh, Christopher Monroe, and Wm. J. Anderson, was appointed by the Chairman, to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, who reported through E. J. Hale, Esq. the following:

WHEREAS: In the opinion of the Whigs of Cumberland, a strict adherance to the Compromise passed at the last session of Congress is essential to the preservation of the Union of the States—a Union dear to every lover of liberty and good government. And whereas, in the selection of an Executive to preside over this Republic, it is of vital importance that a statesman should be chosen whose principles are known to be conservative, and who will fearlessly administer the laws and faithfully stand by the Constitution. And whereas, MILLARD FILLMORE, President of the United States, has observed with fidelity the sacred trust reposed in him, and has during a period of unusual national excitement administered the Government with great fidelity.

1. Be it therefore resolved, That the administration of MillardFillmore meets the cordial support of every friend of the Union, and that the Whigs of Cumberland cherish the hope that he may receive the nomination of the National Convention for the next Presidency.

2. That the Whigs of Cumberland hail with unaffected pleasure the indications of popular feeling in favor of WM. A. GRAHAM—an honest statesman—a man of integrity and the favorite son of North Carolina—and that they will heartily rejoice should he be selected as the Candidate of the Whig party for the Vice Presidency.

3. Resolved, That the Whigs of Cumberland, expressing no preference for any particular individual as a candidate for the office of Governor of North Carolina, feel prepared to support the nomination of any good Whig who may be selected by the Whig Convention

4. Resolved, That this meeting respectfully recommend that the StateConvention be held in the City of Raleigh, the Capitol of the State, in preference to all other places spoken of.

5. Resolved, That this meeting appoint 50 delegates to attend said Convention.

Excellent speeches were delivered during the meeting, by Col J. Winslow, Angus R. Kelly, of Moore, and Col. J J. McDugald, of Bladen.

The resolutions having been unanimously adopted, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

WHIG MEETING IN ORANGE.

The meeting which had been advertised for Tuesday of last week having been prevented by very bad weather on that day, a respectable number of prominent Whigs of the county convened in the Court House during the recess of Court on Wednesday.

On motion of Josiah Turner, jr., esq., the meeting was organized by calling Hugh Waddell, esq., to preside, who was chosen by acclamation, and by appointing Edwin A. Heartt, Secretary.

Upon taking the chair, Mr. Waddell delivered a short, yet very appropriate and eloquent address. He paid a high compliment to the manner in which Mr. Fillmore had performed the arduous duties of his high office during the perilous voyage which the Ship of State had made among the rocks and shoals of disaffection and treason. He was particularly happy in setting forth the high claims presented before the people of the United States by his friend, Mr. Graham. And he closed with an eulogy upon that noble and patriotic party, in acting with which (and he might have added, in spending and being spent for which) his life had been passed.

After the meeting had been thus organized, Samuel F. Phillips, esq read the following resolutions:

The Whigs of the county of Orange, upon the occasion of their first meeting together since the passage of the Acts of Adjustment and Conciliation, return thanks to God for the preservation and increased stability of a Union endeared to its true citizens by new ties of doubtful struggle and glorious success; they congratulate the country upon the brilliant administration of the National Government since the 4th of March, 1849; and having consulted how best they may assist in preserving the affairs of the Republic under their present happy ordering,and in restoring North Carolina to her former honorable counsels, they have resolved to express, in the following terms,their opinion as to what men and measures will best vindicate the claim of the Whig party to the confidence of the people, and in the approaching contest bring victory to their banner. Therefore—

Resolved, 1st. That they approve of the passage of the various acts of Congress, which, taken together, are known as THE COMPROMISE; that they recommend an observance of that Compromise in all good faith as a final settlement of the vexed questions which have divided the Northern and Southern sections of this Confederacy.

2. That in view of the unsettled feeling upon this subject in many portions of the country, they deem it proper to say in particular, that the carrying out of the Fugitive Slave Law is essential to any good understanding between the North and the South; if not, as they add with pain, even to their remaining under the same political institutions.

3. That although they approve of a National Convention of the Whig party, they cannot consent in the approaching election to support for either the Presidency or the Vice Presidency, any man who, in the late difficulties, did not manifest, upon the one hand, a clear approbation of the policy of the Fugitive Slave Law, and upon the other,decided hostility to every proposition for the immediate or the gradual severance of the Union of the States.

4. That in the administration of MILLARD FILLMORE, throughout its whole course, whether of foreign or domestic policy; as well in its rebuke of oppression abroad, as in its regulation of licentiousness at home, the Whigs of the county of Orange recognize the work of a Patriot and Statesman, whose affections have expanded with the growing fortunes of his country, and who has well considered and digested that rational plan of free government,which, equally removed from the harshness of tyranny and the vagaries of higher-law, is now known and admired in every clime as the spirit of American liberty.

5. That in the anticipated elevation of WILLIAM A. GRAHAM to the second office in the gift of the American people, his neighbors and friends hail with delight the fitting reward of an integrity, industry,devotion and wisdom which attracted their attention and partiality upon his first entrance into public life; and they can imagine no method of approving their love to the Union more expressive than that by which they surrender to its service, at a critical period in the history of North Carolina, the energy and ability of one of her favorite sons.

6. That the Whigs of this county take pride in recalling the fact that they were in some measure instrumental in giving to Mr.Fillmore a position which, together with lasting renown to himself, has conferred such signal benefits upon the Republic; that it is also matter of self gratulation that they have ever been ready to afford to Mr. Graham opportunities for displaying his rare accomplishments as a public man; and that they cordially respond to the proposal to place the names of these distinguished individuals at the head of the Whig Presidential Ticket for 1852.

7. That it is highly proper that, at such time and place as shall be most convenient to a majority of the Whigs of North Carolina, they shall hold a State Convention for the purpose of consulting upon matters of common interest, and nominating a candidate for Governor.

8. That, although they pledge themselves to the hearty support of whoever shall receive the nomination from the State Convention, and do not desire to oppose any obstruction to its harmonious action, the Whigs of Orange county beg leave to recommend JOHN A. GILMER, of Guilford, as a suitable candidate for Governor, believing him to be a sterling Whig, of great ability, and of that zeal, popularity and enlightened appreciation of the various wants and interests of North Carolina which the times demand,—a gentleman favorably known throughout the State, and who can rally the entire strength of the Whig party.

9. That the President of this meeting be requested to nominate suitable persons to attend the State Convention as delegates from this county.

The resolutions were then proposed for adoption by the meeting, and carried unanimously.

Eloquent speeches were delivered by Messrs. Josiah Turner, Jr., and Samuel F. Phillips, of Orange; and by Mr. Amis, of Granville.

Resolved, That the editors of the Recorder and other Whig papers in the State be requested to publish these proceedings.

WHIG MEETING IN ONSLOW.

At a meeting of the Whigs of Onslow county, held in Jacksonville on Saturday the 6th December, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Whig Convention:

On motion of Col. E. W. Montfort, Ex-Gov. E. B. Dudley was called to the Chair.

On motion of Col. I. N. Sanders, R. F. Williams was appointed Secretary.

On motion of G. J. Ward, the Chair man appointed Col. Montford, D. Marshall, A. J. Murrell, D. A. Humphrey and I. N. Sanders to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. They retired and reported the following:

Inasmuch as it is deemed advisable by a portion of our Whig brethren to hold a Convention for the purpose of nominating a suitable candidate for Governor at the approaching election, we heartily approve of said Convention.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a suitable number of delegates to attend said Convention.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the administration of Millard Fillmore; in him we find the pure statesman, the elevated patriot, the devoted friend of the Constitution and the Compromise, and we present him to the American people as an individual every way qualified to discharge the high duties of President of the United States.

Resolved, That William A. Graham, of North Carolina, is our first choice for the office of Vice President; his patriotism, firmness of purpose, enlarged and patriotic views of our National policy, entitle him to the gratitude and support of our common country.

Resolved, That we prefer the Hon. William H. Washington, of Craven county, for the office of Governor, and our delegates are hereby requested to procure his nomination; but we pledge our undivided support to the nominee of said Convention.

Resolved, That we recommend Raleigh as a suitable place for holding said Convention

The Chairman appointed the following, to-wit:

On motion of G. J. Ward, the Chairman and Secretary were added to the above delegation.

On motion of Col.Sanders, the thanks of this meeting were tendered to the Chairman and Secretary.

On motion of G. J. Ward, that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Raleigh Register, Wilmington Herald, and Newbernian, and all other papers favorable to the cause.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING IN BEAUFORT COUNTY.

Pursuant to previous notice a large and respectable portion of the farmers, professional men and others, belonging to Beaufort and other counties, assembled at the Court House in the town of Washington on the evening of November the 19th, 1851. It was the week of Beaufort Superior Court, and much general interest was manifested in the meeting, and a fine spirit prevailed, a determination that something must be done, some new steps taken, to improve and elevate the farming interests of North Carolina. To arouse the farmers to a better appreciation of their calling and interests—to give strength to the Beaufort co. Agricultural Society, and to induce farmers to wake up from their slumbering energies, improve their impoverished soils, and reclaim their rich uncleared and undrained lands, embraced the objects of this meeting.

On motion, Benjamin Runyon, Esq., of Washington, was called to the Chair, and Dr. Satchwell, of New Hanover, appointed Secretary.

Dr. John F. Tompkins, of Bath, was then called upon. He entertained the meeting with a very sensible, eloquent speech,—spoke at length of the backward and unworthy condition of the farming classes of North Carolina—showed the importance and necessity of a union of the farmers for the sake of farming—referred with mortified pride to the great want of interest taken by the farmers of the State in agricultural Societies and agricultural Journals— spoke in patriotic strains of what his old native Edgecombe was doing in farming, by associated effort and a more enlightened system of farming, and appealed with much spirit and effect to the farmers of Beaufort, to co likewise. His address was well received, and gained him much applause. He gave an interesting account also of his observations in his recent agricultural tour to Maryland, and his attendance upon the late agricultural fair of that State. This speech of the Doctor, in conjunction with his well known practical skill as a farmer, evinced very clearly, that if the farmers of the Eastern part of the State had a few such in their ranks, a better and brighter day would soon dawn upon them.

James Joyner Esq. was then called up, and he responded in an imposing, able and effecting speech. He spoke with eloquence of the attachment which North Carolinians should have for the State—appealed to the young men to cultivate, assidiously, devotedly foster, the feeling of State pride, and that instead of leaving the "parent hive to swarm in the valleys of the west" and going off on a wild goose chase to hunt for California gold, let them rather remain at home and develop the rich mines of wealth and prosperity, which exist in a large and unexplored extent in our own State. He alluded to the lamentable want of enterprise and energy among our people—so necessary to develop the vast commercial, agricultural and manufacturing resources of the State, set forth in sorrowful colours the great lethargy and backwardness of North Carolina in every thing, and depicted in glowing strains what she ought to be and can be made. He urged the farmers to unite, to read farming papers, to explore their marl beds so easily transformed by scientific farming into gold coin, and to avail themselves of the improvements of the times.—Though a lawyer, he said, with but little experience in farming, his speech was nevertheless stirring and to the purpose and well calculated to further the objects of the meeting.

F. B. Satterthwaite, Esq. of Pitt was then called upon, and spoke in his usually interesting and forcible manner. He reviewed in an able manner, the causes which have retarded the advancement of the old North State, and which have fallen with such injurious effects upon the agricultural interest—adverted to the deplorable dependence of Southern farmers, especially of this State, upon the North for farming implements and articles of subsistance, which can be as well, and ought to be, made and raised at home,—illustrated in a practical way the great value of marling and manuring, and showed that the farmers, as all other trades and professions are doing, must organise and bring about concert of action, if they would be true to themselves as a class. His address was practical, and eloquent, and well received.

Dr. Satchwell then introduced the following Preamble and resolution, which, on motion, were unanimously adopted by the meeting:

Whereas, There are over two hundred and twenty thousand persons engaged in agricultural pursuits in North Carolina, and yet this immense class which affords the life-blood of all other trades and professions, has no especial organ in the State to explain their interests, make known their claims, and to stand forth as their exponent and representative; and whereas, the awakening spirit of agricultural reform and improvement, especialy in the Eastern portion of the State, demands the establishment and efficient support of an agricultural Journal of our own, devoted to the farming interests of the State, and suited to the soil and climate and wants of our people;

Therefore, Resolved, That the proposal of Dr. John F. Tompkins to establish an agricultural journal in the town of Bath meets with the hearty and entire approbation of this meeting, and that his sterling energy, talents, public spirit, and practical skill and experience in farming, render him well qualified to conduct such a Journal. This meeting recommends him and his enterprize to the favor and liberal patronage of the farmers and to all others interested.

Very appropriate remarks were then made by S. S. Simmons, Esq. of Tyrrell, James B. Marsh, Esq. of Beaufort, and others, all approving the proposed journal, and pledging themselves to use their efforts to encourage this awakening attention to agriculture.

The good effects of meetings of this kind were very manifest. A new spirit of enquiry and investigation has at least been produced among the farmers of Beaufort.

Probably no larger agricultural meeting was ever held in the State. The people seem to see the force of the truth that they must either move, or improve, or starve. And when as the speakers said, our vast resources are considered, when the many and great manufacturing, commercial and agricultural elements and advantages which a bountiful creator has every where spread profusely around us, are borne in mind, every suggestion of policy and state pride, all those endearments and fond associations which cluster around that sacred word home, appeal strongly to our citizens to remain at home, and avail themselves of these natural benefits.—They call upon our young men to stop this tide of emigration, now constantly draining our State of her vitality. Let this be done, said the speakers, let our citizens be content to remain on the soil of their birth, let them but have the will, and the industry, and enterprize to make a wise use and improvement of these rich treasures which nature every where offers to them, and in a few years North Carolina would be one of the most prosperous, as she has always claimed to be one of the most patriotic of "the old thirteen."

On motion of H. G. Jollie, resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the chairman and secretary, and that they be published in the North State Whig, with a request that other papers in the State, who take an interest in the subject, would copy.

On motion the thanks of the meeting were tendered the chairman and secretary for the faithful discharge of their duties.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

OUR TRUE POSITION.

Without waiting to inquire what may be the party issue bearing upon the subject, we commit ourselves unreservedly to the political maxim, "peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations, entangling alliances with none." If we meddle with foreign affairs, and permit our sympathy for individuals or cases to embroil us in the convulsions of Europe, we may bid farewell forever to the enjoyment of peaceable and well-regulated liberty. The cause of all the martyrs and exiles,made such by the tyranny of foreign despots, is but a feather in the balance, compared to the importance of our sustaining Republican Principles in the might and the power of a just neutrality. Stepping from this impregnable ground, we will soon be unable to help ourselves, much less afford comfort and aid to others.

We are sure that Kossuth is misled by the manner and style of the several addresses presented to him. Each individual who is placed in the position of organ to a Corporation, Society, or Community, seems to take up the notion that he "is the State," and pledges of all sorts are given of what our people will do for the promotion of the cause of freedom in general, and the independence of Hungary in particular. This is wrong. The Hungarian Patriot is a model of honesty and candor, and does not conceal the expectations the speech-makers have raised in his mind. This sincerity deserves to be met in a like spirit, and he should be told,at once, that though we sympathise with him and his partners in suffering, the United States can undertake no crusade against the despotisms of Europe, and that all we can bestow is a home, citizenship, and protection. Even if our will were ever so much enlarged, we have not the power to do more, and it would be the madness and folly of self-destruction to attempt it. Jonathan is a very responsible person; "some pumpkins," as the word is; and for so young a personage is exceedingly strong and powerful—but he is not "all creation," and never will be. Because he has his shirt collar stuck up pretty high, and gets on high-heeled boots, it does not follow that he can reach the moon or pluck the stars from their orbs, and "crowd them in his budget." A braver, nobler, worthier chap is no where to be found in the world; and he is very prosperous and thriving, and so will he continue, so long as he stays at home and minds his own business, and no longer.

Wil. Commercial.

HOW LAFAYETTE WAS RECEIVED BY CONGRESS.

In the debate upon the reception of Kossuth by Congress, says the Philadelphia Ledger, frequent allusion was made to the reception of Lafayette as a precedent. The National Intelligencer, referring to the accounts of this transaction at that time, says Lafayette was invited by each House to a seat within its chamber; the committee appointed on the subject having publicly announced that, "entertaining every wish to make the reception of General Lafayette as complimentary as possible,' they yet found difficulties in the way of a joint reception, and considered it better that each House should adopt its own arrangements and its own "form in the reception of that distinguished individual." The General was accordingly presented to the Senate by its committee, with this simple introduction: "We introduce Gen. Lafayette to the Senate of the United States;" and the General, advancing to the chair, was invited by the President of the Senate to take a seat prepared for him on his right. No address to him was made. The Senate adjourned soon after his being seated, and then the President and Members of that body paid their individual respects to him. On the day following, the General was introduced to the House with similar ceremonies. On that occasion, Mr. Speaker Clay, rising from the chair, made to him a beautiful and eloquent address, to which Lafayette made a reply, expressing his acknowledgments of the continued good-will of the American people, of his delight in their progress, and his undiminished attachment to the institutions of the country, for whose freedom and independence he had fought nearly fifty years before. The House then adjourned, and the members, led by the Speaker, paid their personal respects to him.

ANOTHER GENERAL GONE.

We learned yesterday from an officer of the army, that General Belknap recently died on the Brazos, in Texas.—This is the tenth General who has died since the Mexican war. General Belknap was in the principal battles, under General Taylor, in the Mexican war.—At the battle of Buena Vista he was adjutant-general, and commanded the advance. General Belknap, we believe, at the time of his death, was Colonel of the 8th Infantry.—N. O. Delta.

IMPORTANT MOVEMENT.

Republic for the Sandwich Islands.—A California letter, which the New York Times published yesterday, states distinctly that the object of the large company of emigrants who recently left San Francisco for the Sandwich Islands, is to establish a Republican State there. To this end a constitution had been formed in San Francisco prior to their departure, containing a clause providing for the introduction of slavery.—The Times says its correspondent is a gentleman of experience and judgment, an old Californian, mingling in and possessing the confidence of the communities of San Francisco, as well as Sacramento, and likely to be in the confidence of parties to the movement in question.

Balt. Sun.

MRS. PARTINGTON, on reading an account of a schooner having her jib-boom carried away in Long Island Sound, one night last week, wondered "why people would leave such things out of doors all night, to be stolen, when there were so many buglers about, filtering every thing they could lay their hands on.

SPAIN.—Madrid accounts state that the Spanish Government had pardoned on the demand of Lord Howden, 23 English subjects who had taken part in the Cuban expedition.

HENRY CLAY.—The editor of the N. Y. Tribune writes as follows from Washington, under date of 3d inst:

HENRY CLAY did not attend the sitting of yesterday; and I did not see him in the Capitol to-day.—But, seeing him at his own room, I was pained by his general appearance. His mind is clear, vigorous and active as ever, but his physical powers have been greatly impaired since I last before saw him. He is much thinner, looks older, and is less able to brave fatigue and exposure than he was even last March. He suffers continually from a dry hacking cough, which has clung to and grown upon him for the last eighteen months, and sometimes causes him much distress. I do greatly fear that this is the very last session of Congress wherein his eloquent voice will be heard and his potent influence felt in the councils of the nation.

Mr. Clay's determination is fixed and unalterable that no persuasions nor entreaties shall induce him to be again a candidate for the Presidency. He feels that his earthly career is near its close, and that whatever he has had power to do for the country is nearly accomplished. Let us hope that the blessings of millions will irradiate and cheer his remaining days, and that the Bow of Promise will span and silver to his closing eye the dark waters of Death.

The N. Y. Evening Post, the ablest paper in the country of the Locofoco-abolition party, bears the following testimony to the true position of parties:—

"The Whig members of the House have met in caucus; and the resolutions which the Democratic caucus rejected have been offered. As the Compromise measures are the measures of the Administration and its friends, and form a part of the Administration policy, they were of course adopted.

"But they were not adopted without contention and dissent. Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, and several others who favor the freesoil doctrine, withdrew from the caucus, and, we presume, will not hold themselves bound by its proceedings.

"In both caucuses the result is precisely what we could have desired. The responsibility of the Compromise is virtually disowned by the Democrats, and distinctly avowed by the Whigs, whose proper offspring it is."

KOSSUTH.—The correct pronunciation of this name is Kosh-oot or more exactly Kosh-yoot, with the emphasis on the first syllable. In the Magyar language s always has the force of our sh, except when it is modified by the collocation of z, which in this instance is not the case; u is pronounced like oo in boot; and the letters th together have the force of our simple t.

Fable of the Wolf and Horse.—A wolf meeting a horse, asked him who he was, and whence he came? "I know not," replied the horse, "who I am, or whence I came: but my father has written an account of me in one of the hoofs of my hinder feet." The wolf, applying himself in a stooping posture to read the name, received such a blow from the leg of the horse, that he fell down quite stunned. On recovering, he exclaimed, "What a fool did I show myself, when, being born and bred a hunter, I pretended to be a scholar!"

AN old lady who did not know whether her plantation was in Virginia or North Carolina, found, when the line was run, that she was a resident of the former. "Well," said she. "I am glad I don't live in North Carolina! It was always such a sickly State!"

Southern Feeling.—Instead of giving the Whigs in Congress credit for the noble stand taken by them in the Congressional Caucus, by which they kicked the abolitionists out of the party, the Goldsborough Republican and Patriot slanders them by saying,—

This is so far from being true, that Mr. Campbell of Ohio, the abolitionist who nominated Stevens, expressly declared that that nomination had no connection with the Whig caucus, in which he took no part. The Whig party had no candidate, but members voted for Stanly, Chandler, or others, as they pleased.

More North Carolina Coal.—We have received from a friend, some specimens of coal discovered on the lands of Mr. Thomas, on Downing Creek, near the line dividing Montgomery and Moore Counties, on the Montgomery side, within a half mile of the Morgaton Road, and about 45 to 50 miles from this Town. It is said that a Blacksmith in the neighborhood has used this coal in his forge for the last 30 years. The specimens may be seen at this office.

North Carolina Manufactures.—We observe a statement in the N. Y. Express, purporting to be derived from the Census, that there are 28 cotton factories in this State. Our State is doomed again to suffer its usual injustice. If there is one cotton factory in the State there are 41 and we rather think nearer 50.

"A SEA OF TROUBLES."

How few of those whose constant habit and whose pleasure it is to peruse the columns of a newspaper, know the amount of labor expended in fitting it for their eyes. And even those who have a faint idea of the labor and trouble, how little gratitude do they feel either for the Editor who harrasses his mind to catch a new idea (vain endeavor often) for their edification and amusement, or for the printer who fixes up in "ship shape" what has been written, or for the poor devil who rolls on the ink, rolls off the paper, and rolls it to their doors in Uncle Sam's rolling mail carts.

We say how little do the first class of readers know of an Editor's trials, and how little gratitude do the second feel. Those who know nothing, or little, which is about the same thing, labor under the impression that it isn't much after all to issue a newspaper, no trouble to write an article, no trouble to indite a paragraph, and still less trouble to fill up the columns with such items of news, both foreign and domestic, as will gratify every reader, please every mind, satisfy every taste. To those who think so we say, crustily enough to be sure, but still we say, "Try it."—Then, and then only, will they find out their error.

But after all, we cant blame this class of readers so much, for we were once verdant enough to hold to the same opinions ourselves, and should perhaps have held them to this day, had we not alas, been put to the test, and had literally forced upon us the conviction, that to say is easier far than to do. Yes we have been put to the test, and testy enough in all conscience has the test made us. If we get safely out of this scrape, and are ever caught in a similar one again, while one gram of common sense finds a lodgement in our cranium, why then there are "snakes in Ireland and fools in Ameriky"—that's all. It is worse than marriage or the measles, and we think that instead of jailing offenders against the law, they ought for punishment to be forced to edit a country newspaper. We used to think it would be mighty pleasant to assume the Editorial Chair (ours is a stool though—of repentance,) and give to the world weekly proof of our smartness—to let folks know how much we knew, and how well we could tell it.—But we hadn't occupied the chair "more nor a week," before we found out that we didn't know so much after all, and couldn't tell it so mighty well either.—We are behind the times, every body gets before us, grabs at what should be ours, and check-mates us with no trouble. We'll give a specimen: Is Mr. Thrasher in a Cuban dungeon, and are we indignant? Well, no sooner do we prepare an editorial on the subject, knocking the Spanish government into a "cocked hat" with our ponderous sentences, (a la Webster,) than some wicked, bad Editor, sticks the same ideas in his paper, and just the day before we are to astonish the sovereigns, and blow up the world, they are read by every body, and our matter becomes useless—worse than wet powder. Does a big fire happen in New York? A seduction case occur in the Quaker City? Is a fugitive slave rescued in Boston? Have the Dutch taken Holland? Are Flour barrels put to a new use in Wilmington? Has Cardinal Hughes made a fool of himself? And to be done with queries, Has Mrs. Partington had a recent attack of the brown creeters? Every body finds out these things before we do, publishes them before we do, and says about them just what we would have said, only not quite as well! But these are not all of our troubles. Our head aches from hard thinking, our fingers ache from hard writing, and we can't sleep o'nights for fear of visits from the "murdered Murray." But never mind, the Editor will get well again, and then our sheet will be as smart as the smartest, and we, bidding a long farewell to foolscap paper and worn out pens, will forsake the hard and thankless task of newspaper making—will purge, go to school to the Warrenton News, eschew types, and live like a gentleman. Vive la bagatelle.

MILLARD FILLMORE.

If, prior to the publication of the last Executive Message to the two Houses of Congress, any thing was wanting to convince the American People of Millard Fillmore's fitness for the Presidency, that want has been supplied by the document in question. It bears upon its face the impress of a sound head and pure heart. It is a "dignified, well written, and conservative State paper," breathing through its lines such a spirit of devotion to the Constitution and Laws, and evincing such a bold determination to stand up for the rights and dignity of our country against the encroachments and exactions of foreign powers, as must commend both it and the writer to the esteem and high regard of every patriot. It is not such a weak, wishy-washy, non-committal message, as we have seen emanate from the same department, nor yet is it such a war-like, blood and thunder missive, as used to meet our eyes in the days of "Young Hickory." But it is a message that lays down gently, yet firmly, the policy of the administration, and marks out principles which, if practiced, will redound greatly to the advantage and prosperity of the country. And not only this, but in language not to be misunderstood, free from bombast and braggadocia, it declares to the world that American rights must be respected, and will in case of aggression be defended at every "hazard, and to the last extremity."

We feel proud and well pleased that such a man as Millard Fillmore is at the head of affairs. We read him plainly in his message, and distinctly see him—a man who knowing his duty, is ready to brave every danger, encounter every obstacle, make any sacrifice to perform it. Coming as he did from almost the extreme North, and we believe from an abolition neighborhood, it was natural to suppose that he would incline to Northern opinion, and show himself partial to Northern interest. But no! hearing with pity but spurning with contempt, the mad, fanatical, and clamorous demands of the crazy disunionist, and black-hearted abolitionist, he has chosen the Constitution, and that alone for his guide, knowing that if faithfully administered, impartial justice will be done to every section, and that prosperity, happiness, and honor, will wait upon every effort of our country to reach the pinnacle of greatness.

We are happy to be able to state, that many of our opponents—the candid and the honest—have spoken well of the Message; but, there are some who, acting upon the infernal sentiment of one of their late leaders and big guns, that, "an opposing administration must be put down, though as pure as the angels at the right hand of God," have not hesitated to speak sneeringly of the message and vilely of its author.

But let them whine and howl and snap, let them attempt to poison and darken the bright atmosphere of truth with the pestiferous breath of falsehood. 'Tis vain. Millard Fillmore will never be reached by their envenomed shafts. They can neither blacken his political character nor break down his political influence; and let them wish as they may, hope as they may, they will be compelled to hail him as the next President.

FIRE IN RALEIGH.

The City of Raleigh was visited by a most destruction fire on Monday morning last. The following is from an extra issued from the office of the Weekly Post, dated Dec. 15—2 A. M.

"While we write, the most terrible Conflagration is in progress that has ever visited the City. Commencing at a small wooden building south of the Post Office the whole square is in flames, with the exception of the large brick buildings on the N. W. corner, occupied by H. D. Turner, James McKimmon, Palmer & Ramsay, W. Thompson, and C. B. Root.

The large building on the S. W. corner in which is the Telegraph Office, is wrapped in flames.

The wind is from the S. W., and consequently the stores on the west side of Fayetteville st., may be saved. How far the fire may yet extend in an easterly direction, we cannot tell. The City authorities are now blowing up buildings, hoping thus to stop the progress of the conflagration."

P. S. We learn from a passenger who came down from Raleigh on Monday night, that the fire had been stopped, after burning from Roulhac's store, on Fayetteville st., sweeping over Grog Alley, to the north east corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets.

Since the above was in type, we have received the following Extra from the office of the North Carolina Star:

RALEIGH, Dec. 15—5 P. M.

DREADFUL CONFLAGRATION.

An important part of Raleigh is again in ashes. At about half past 12 o'clock last night, our citizens were aroused from their slumbers by the cry of fire, which was discovered in the Shoe Store of Mr. Depkins, on Fayetteville St., next below the building of Mrs. Stuart, occupied by Wm. White, Esq., as a residence and Post Office. The fire had caught in a sleeping apartment, having been accidentally communicated to the bed clothing, and when it awoke the hands, was so alarming as to drive them out of the room. Had the pump on the opposite side of the street been in good order, it could, however, have been arrested, as a few buckets of water would have extinguished it at once; but, unfortunately, this was not the case; and the building was soon wrapt in flame, which spread so rapidly as to defy all efforts to check it, until every house on the square south of it, except Mr. Holloman's brick store and blacksmith shop, was consumed. Mrs. Stuart's dwelling and the Post Office, with the brick store and residence of Mr. Pentress, were also burnt down; and the progress of the fire was arrested by blowing up the store-house of Col. Roulhac, second door above the Post Office.

The buildings destroyed on Fayetteville Street are, the large brick building, property of Richard Smith, Esq. on the corner opposite the Apothecary store of Messrs Williams, Haywood & Co., occupied by Mr. Creach's Dry Good Store; Mr. Harding's Ready Made Clothing Store; and the Telegraph and Mutual Insurance Offices. The goods, furniture and effects of stores and offices were saved. The original cost of building the house was twelve or fourteen thousand dollars. Insured for $5,000.

The Saddle and Harness establishment of Col. C. W. D. Hutchings.—Goods and work all saved. Insurance on the building (wood) $600. Loss $600 to $800.

The Confectionary store of Mr. Grif fice, goods saved. The building (wood) the property of Mr. J. C. Powell, not insured—worth $600 or 700.

Mrs. Stuart's Dwelling, with the Post office. Every thing in house and office saved. This wooden building was remarkable for having heretofore, almost miraculously escaped several fires.—Loss at least $2,500. No insurance.

Mr. Fentress' brick Store and dwelling. Insured for three or four thousand dollars. Loss $1,000 to $2,000. Furniture and goods saved.

Col. Roulhac's Store, blown up.—Goods saved.

ON HARGET STREET, five small frame buildings occupied as grocery and liquor establishments, were consumed, as follows: Occupied by Mr. Crocker, property of Richard Smith; by Mr. Dudley, (occupant and owner;) Mr. Womble, (occupant and owner;) Mr. A. Adams (R. Smith owner;) Mr. L. Adams, (occupant and owner. Contents all saved. No Insurance. Loss some five or six hundred dollars each—say, in all, $3,000.

On the back street, three brick tenements, the property of Richard Smith, Esq. and Mr. Gill. Loss about $1,000.

Thus in the space of two hours and a half have at least thirty thousand dollars worth of property been destroyed by the devouring element. All for the want of water! for the want of water!

The fire might easily have been arrested at several points, if there had been water and a suitable engine!

Will this not be a sufficient lesson to induce our citizens to provide water and engines for future emergencies? It should be done, and no time should be lost in doing it.

FILLMORE AND GRAHAM.

The "Fond du Lac (Wisconsin) Patriot" hoists the names of Fillmore and Graham to its mast-head for the Presidency and Vice Presidency. We are rejoiced to see this demonstration in that distant region. It shows that the conservative course of the Administration is appreciated everywhere, throughout the whole country, by the honest and reflecting of the people, and that our own immediate distinguished fellow-citizen is rapidly acquiring a National reputation.—Register.

The Spoils.—The Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives is stated to have removed six Whigs, who held places under him as assistants, and appointed six Locos in their places. The persons removed were informed that "no fault was found with them; but that they are removed solely because they are Whigs, and their places are demanded by the democratic members for their friends." Several pages are said to have been removed likewise.

The Case of John S. Thrasher---Great Excitement at New Orleans---His Release Demanded, &c.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 13.—The announcement of the departure of John S. Thrasher, as a prisoner, from Cuba, for Spain, has caused the greatest excitement in our city. Last evening a town meeting, immensely attended, was held at the arcade, to take into consideration his case. A series of resolutions were adopted, calling upon the General Government to demand his instant release.

Enthusiastic speeches were made by both whigs and democrats, and the meeting was frequently interrupted by cries of "War! War!!" and other like evidences of excitement and angry feeling at the course of events at Havana.

The resolutions were directed to be forwarded to the President of the United States, and to the presiding officers of both houses of Congress.

☞ It has been decided by the Post Office Department that the subscribers living in a county where a newspaper is published, are entitled to receive it free of postage, even though the Post Office through which they receive it may be out of the county.

A Mammoth Steamer.—A steamer, immense in size and novel in construction, is to be built in New York to run on the Hudson river and compete with the railroad. It is to be 500 feet long, with 350 feet length of deck. Both ends of the boats are alike, and her engines are to work both ways. She is not intended to turn round, but to work like a ferry-boat. She is to be called the George Washington, and to have accommodations for three thousand passengers.

Heave Powders.—A man out west lately threw eight constables, sixteen somersets, and two deputy sheriffs. He feeds on the "heave powders" which we read of.

POSTAGE LAW.

It is to be hoped that Congress will take up, at an early day, the recommendations of the Post Master General touching a change in the existing post office law, so far as it effects printed matter. A more oppressive, troublesome, crude and absurd law could hardly have been framed, and its defects are felt by almost every person in the country.

And what is worst of all, the official constructions under this law, have, thus far, been of a stringent and illiberal character, instead of leaning to the side of accommodation. We want a better law, and a better spirit in those whose duty it is to construe its provisions.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia. In cases of Liver complaint, Dyspepsia, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, their power is not excelled, if equalled, by any other known preparation, as the cures attest, in many cases, after the most celebrated physicians had failed. We can consciously recommend this medicine, as being what it is represented, and urge our readers who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and they will be convinced of the truth we assert. 3 2m.

Page's Improved Portable Patent Circular Saw Mills.

THE Subscribers beg leave to inform their friends, customers, and the public generally, that they have greatly enlarged their facilities for manufacturing their celebrated IMPROVED PORTABLE PATENT CIRCULAR SAW MILLS; can fill all orders with promptness, and, therefore solicit a share of public patronage.

They manufacture mills of three different sizes. The "first class" is so constructed, by the conjunctive action of two circular saws, one from above, and the other from below, as to enable it to cut timber of large dimensions, viz: of 43 inches in diameter. This saw mill with a 12 horse engine and boilers, complete in all its parts, except smoke stack, costs $2,035; with the smoke-stack, the price is $2,105, and can cut from 8,000 to 10,000 feet of lumber per day, and with plenty of hands to handle, can cut 15,000 feet.

The "second class" Saw mill, adjusted with one saw, with a 12 horse power engine, and boiler, complete in all its parts, except smokestack, costs $1,885; with smoke stack, the price is $1,905. It can cut from 6,000 to 8,000 feet per day.

The "third class" Saw mill adjusted with one saw, with a 10 horse power engine and boiler, complete in all its parts, except smoke-stack, costs $1,420; with smoke-stack, $1,480. It can cut from 5,000 to 6,000 feet a day.

All of these mills are calculated for steam or water power, while the last is well adapted to be worked by horse power. They are made of the very best materials, by the most skilful workmen, simple in their principles, of great strength, power, and efficiency, and made with due regard to effective service and durability. They can be removed from one place to another with strong teams are easily managed, and not liable, when properly managed, to get out of repair. It is saying less of them than they deserve, to affirm, that they can each, the same power, cut more than double the quantity of lumber than can be cut by an Up and Down, or Gang Saw—cut it with a truthful line evenly and smooth.

Unless otherwise ordered, the subscribers' Saw mills are all adjusted with saws of 48 inches diameter. 12 feet carriage, 24 feet ways. The second class mill can carry with ease any saw up to 60 inches—54 inches they look upon as the most desirable size. The third class mill can carry either a 48, 50, or 52 inch saw advantageously.

The cost of of one of their "third class" Mills and horse power, all complete, is $450—without the horse power, $350. It can cut with 4 horses, from 1,000 to 1,500 feet, with 6 horses, from 1,800 to 2,500 feet per day.

Engines and boilers contracted to be built by the subscribers, are so constructed as to burn the slabs,—a great advantage.

Where more carriage than 12 feet are ordered, $3 per foot, extra, is charged for each foot over that number. If a larger saw than 48 inches is ordered, the difference is charged, extra.—if a less saw is required, the difference in price is deducted. With slight additional expense for fixtures, their Saw mills can be adjusted to make shingles and laths.

The subscribers seize this occasion to say, that no person other than themselves in, or out of North Carolina, has any authority directly, or indirectly, to construct their mills for sail, or use, in said State. They, therefore, caution the public against purchasing any Circular Saw Mill involving the same principle as that of Page's Portable Patent Saw Mill, as, by so doing, they will render themselves liable to be sued for damages, by action of trespass, as well as by injunction. They deem this caution necessary, as from certain advertisement transmitted to them by one of their agents, it is evident that certain parties are bent upon violating the rights granted to the subscribers by letters patent from the U. States Government.

The undersigned have seen, with surprise, the statement made in North Carolina papers, that McKinstry's mills had taken the premium at the Maryland State Fair. So far from such being the fact, they unhesitatingly affirm, that that gentleman NEVER exhibited a saw mill at the Fair of the Maryland State Agricultural Society in his life; and they have too good an opinion of his love of truth, to believe that the statement in question was made either with his consent or knowledge.

Persons disposed to purchase are referred to the subscribers' Agent, JOHN M. ROSE, Esq., Fayetteville, North Carolina.

For terms, &c. applications by letter to the subscribers, post-paid, will be promptly attended to, as well as for pamphlets containing every possible kind of information relative to their mills, as well as various other machines made by them. In the, latter cases a post-office stamp should be enclosed as the law of Congress requires pre-payment on all pamphlets.

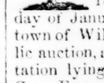
Valuable Real Estate for Sale.



In Obedience to a Decree of the Court of Equity for the County of New Hanover, made at the Fall Term, 1851, of said Court, on Friday the 2d day of January, 1852, at Exchange corner in the town of Wilmington, I shall expose to sale at public auction, all that valuable tract of land and plantation lying on the North Eastern branch of the Cape Fear river, containing about 800 acres, and known as the Vatts or Ferry plantation, of the late Ezekiel Lane.

The land now offered for sale constitutes a part of that valuable district of the county of New Hanover, known as Rocky Point; has a comfortable dwelling house and a good barn and out houses and lies immediately on the river, which is navigable from Wilmington to this point for vessels of almost any draft of water.

A credit of one, two and three years with interest after the first year is directed, and to secure the purchase money, bonds with good and sufficient security will be required.

NEW HOTEL!!!

THE Subscriber respectfully announces to the public, that he has opened that large and on the East side of the Rail Road, for the accommodation of the travelling public, generally, as well as for local custom. The House has been neatly fitted up—the Beds and Furniture entirely new. The Table and Bar will be furnished with the best the markets can produce. Dinner and Breakfast will be ready on the arrival of the Rail Road Trains.

A large addition is now being erected, which when complete, will make it one of the largest, and most pleasant establishments, to be found on the great Northern and Southern Mail Route.

It is the best point in the State for mail facilities, the Post Office being kept at the Hotel, and situated immediately at the crossing of the great Northern and Southern, and Eastern and Western mail routes. He hopes to merit, and expects to receive a full share of patronage. JAMES GRISWOLD.

THE RAIL ROAD HOTEL,
GOLDSBORO', N. C.

THIS House, situated on the West side of the Rail Road, so favorably known to the Public, continues to be kept open for their entertainment.

Additions and improvements have been recently completed, which render this House, in point of comfort and appearance, inferior to none on the great Northern and Southern Mail Route.

The Stage Office of the Raleigh and New Berne Mail Routes, is kept at this House

The Proprietress, while returning thanks for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, hopes that her increased efforts to administer to the comfort of her guests, will meet with a continuation of their patronage.

Look at This.

THE subscriber returns his thanks to the citizens of Wayne, and the adjoining counties, for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon him since he has been a citizen of Goldsboro'.

A long period of over eleven years residence in Wayne county, has enabled his fellow citizens to form a correct opinion of his claims to that patronage which he has studied to merit, and hopes to receive at their hands.

He continues to carry on the Tailoring business in all its Departments at his old stand, on East Centre Street, next door to Odd Fellows' Hall

He has in his employment some of as good workmen as the country affords, and from his long experience in, and diligent attention to his profession, as a science, he flatters himself that all work entrusted to his care, can be cut and made in a style inferior to none in the country.

Persons from the country wishing to have clothes cut by him, will receive prompt attention at reasonable prices.

He respectfully solicits the continued patronage of his old customers, and hopes by diligent attention to business, to secure that of new ones.

AFFLICTED READ!
MEDICAL HOUSE,
Established Fifteen Years ago, by
Dr. Kinkelin,
N. W. Corner of Third and Union Streets, between Spruce and Pine streets, Philadelphia.

Fifteen years of extensive and uninterrupted practice spent in this city, have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful practitioner far and near, in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat, or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K., may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

Take Particular Notice.

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irratability and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease in any way connected with the disorder of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

Youth & Manhood,
A VIGOROUS LIFE,
OR A
Premature Death.
KINKELIN on Self-Preservation.
ONLY ~~25~~ CENTS!

This book just published is filled with useful information, and the infirmaties and diseases of the generative organs. It addresses itself alike to youth manhood and old age, and should be read by all.

The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives, will prevent years of misery and suffering, and save annually thousands of lives.

Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

 A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter, addressed to Dr. KINKELIN, N. W. corner of Third and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelop, per return of mail.

Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, enclosing a fee, and be cured at home.

Packages of medicines, directions, etc., forwarded, by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Afflicted Read!!

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE.—Established 15 Years ago by DR. KINKELIN. The oldest surest and best hand to cure all forms of secret diseases, diseases of the skin, and solitary habits of youth, is DR. KINKELIN, N. W. corner of THIRD and UNION Streets, between Spruce and Pine, 1½ squares from the Exchange, Philadelphia.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There is a habit which boys teach each other at the academy or college—a habit indulged in when by themselves, in solitude, growing up with the boy to manhood, and which, if not abandoned in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidnous, and devastating affections. Few of those who indulge in this pernicious practice, are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable feelings, vague fears in the mind. The individual becomes feeble, he it unable to labor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study; his step is tardy and weak, he is dull, irresolute, the countenance is downcast, the eyes without natural lustre, shamefacedness is apparent These are symptoms which should awaken the attention of those similarly afflicted.

IF THE VICTIM

Be conscious of the cause of his decay, and having relinquished the odious practice he suffers under those terrible nocturnal and involuntary emissions, which weaken and shame him, producing mental and physical prostration. If he emancipate himself before the practice has done its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies.

Too many think they will hug the secret to their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas! how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising youth, who might have been an ornament to society, has faded from the earth.

YOUNG MEN.

Let no false modesty deter you from making your case known to one who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend you. He who places himself under Dr. KINKELIN'S treatment, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman and in whose bosom will be forever locked the secret of the patient]

COUNTRY INVALIDS

Finding it convenient to make personal application, can, by stating their case explicitly, together with all their symptoms, (per letter post paid,) have forwarded to them a chest containing Dr. K's medicines, appropriated accordingly, and be cured at home.

Strictures of the urethra, weakness and constitutional debility, promptly cured, and full vigor restored. All letters post paid.

PREPARED BY
Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled —if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.
From the "Boston Bee."

The editor said, Dec. 22nd.

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of the Liver complaint, Jaundice, dispepsia, chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure for Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advertise their use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said, Aug 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactered by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advertise all mothers to obtain a bottle and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE.

The "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," the best family newspaper published in the United States. The editor says of

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

"It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotton after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three Years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dispepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

This medicine has attained that high character which is necessary for all medicines to attain to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles at the risk of the lives of those who are
